SAP ERP Offerings

Enterprises need to continiously improve their business processes to streamline operations, improve efficiency and reduce cost. This necessitates an agile team to manage and update existing ERP functionalities and systems.

61% of
ERP implementations are not completed on time

67% of
Enterprises need industry specific solutions

ERP challenges in organisations

- Build and integrate new technologies with existing applications
- Redesign business process for evolving industry standards
- Provide real time data analytic for key decision making
- Extend business processes to a mobile workforce

Paskon will help to address these challenges by providing efficient and cost effective industry specific solutions offerings. Using agile developement frameworks, our technical experts develop customised pre-defined accelerators and templates that enable us to deliver successful solutions across various SAP applications.

Paskon Benefits

Improve on-time delivery with optimized process efficiency and cost

Provide sophisticated data analysis for better decision-making and generate error free quality reports

Provide an entire integrated view of business process within the organisation

Enhance strategic decision making and planning capabilities

Our solution provides an opportunity for improvement and refinement in the business process on a continuous manner.

Deep expertise in global program management and implementation

Paskon's agile development methodology can be adopted with your application development framework to deliver high quality solutions

Create seamless integration between business process and technology by enabling new technologies like Bigdata, Analytics and Mobility

Paskon Capablities

- Paskon's predefined templates and accelerators extends SAP ERP platform to streamline your business processes and reduce cost by improving operational efficiency

- With years of expertise in ERP offerings, Paskon is able to help in build and integrate new technologies through your existing applications for mobile devices with faster and secure interface anytime-anywhere

- Paskon capabilities extends not only to Automotive and Manufacturing but to other industries like Retail, Transportation, Utilities, Healthcare

- Our rich technical consultant provide solutions using SAP HANA for analysing Big Data for better decision making

- We provide intelligent dashboards using SAP Lumira and rich user experience interfaces using SAP Fiori across various mobile devices

- cmPlify Warranty a scalable and modular solution provides an agile framework to integrate the entire warranty supply chain. This solution provides flexible and predictive analytics that enables accurate decision making for immediate results

- Our partnership with Worksoft helps test and automate your existing business implementations, Roll-outs/Upgrade in a more effective and efficient manner

About Paskon

Paskon is a US based minority-owned business and a leading global organisation in providing end-to-end technology solutions and consulting services catering to both SME's and large companies. Based on best industry practices, we help businesses achieve operational excellence focusing on some of the key technology areas like Analytics, Big Data, Mobility, SAP & Openbravo ERP.

Paskon is a certified SAP and Openbravo partner. As a trusted partner our expertise enables customers to achieve profitable growth, enhance integration, maximise resource utilization and improve operational efficiencies resulting in fully integrated, sustainable and profitable business enterprise.

Today, Paskon continues to drive the industry forward by embracing agile business and IT software development methodologies that accelerate innovation in this highly dynamic and fast–changing market.